

A Journey of Adventure: Reflections of Our 50 Years of Marriage

"Memories Will Be Our Souvenirs"

As the curtain falls on 2024 and the dawn of winter approaches, Diane and I embark on an extraordinary three-week Summer South American/Caribbean odyssey. This journey promises to be more than just a vacation; it is a chance to relive our past visits, a testament to our unwavering sense of adventure, and an opportunity to create new memories that will become part of the tapestry of our shared history.

The highlight of our Caribbean odyssey will undoubtedly be our return to the Island of Barbados, where Diane and I tied the knot at the Court House in Bridgetown, officiated by Magistrate Lynch. Revisiting this special place after 50 years of friendship and marriage promises a profoundly moving and nostalgic experience. We'll walk the same streets we did as newlyweds, feeling the echo of our younger selves at every step. This adventure promises to enrich our lives through the splendor of nature and culture and reinforce the bonds of love that have defined our years together.

Our adventure begins at Harry Reid International Airport as we check in our faithful 20-year-old red and black hard-side Samsonite suitcases, aptly named after the Pointer Stars of the Ursa Major, Dubhe & Merak. These two stalwart companions have weathered countless global trips, their scratches and scuffs telling tales of adventures gone by. We can't help but feel a twinge of nostalgia as we share this golden age of travel with these friends.

With a wink and a smile from the Las Vegas Sphere on our portside, we leave the landmarks of the Las Vegas Strip behind us, looking forward to the memories we'll create and the wonders we'll witness in the upcoming weeks. This trip is not just about the destinations; it's about celebrating our enduring life, our shared spirit of adventure, and the joy of experiencing the world together. It's a testament to the rich fabric of experiences we've woven over the last 53 years and a promise of more adventures.

An Unexpected Docking Adventure in Belem, Brazil

Samba - Belem, Brazil

Bethlehem

Our journey to Belem took an intriguing twist, transforming a routine port stop into a memorable adventure. As we approached the Brazilian city, our Viking vessel faced an unforeseen challenge: the need for repairs to its 4th Turbine Engine and the harbor's limited pier access. This combination of factors led to an unconventional docking experience that added an element of excitement to our arrival.

Unique Anchorage

Instead of the typical dockside berth, our ship anchored about two miles offshore from Belem's famous Market Marché Ver-o-Peso. The resonant horns of tugboats broke the early morning stillness, heralding our arrival as they guided our vessel to its temporary home in the Amazon River.

Tender Adventure

The shallow, muddy waters of the river delta necessitated an innovative solution for passenger disembarkation. Tender boats were employed to ferry travelers to shore, adding an unexpected nautical element to our land excursion. While this operation was costly for the cruise line, it was essential to maintain the ship's integrity and provided us with a unique perspective of Belem from the water.

The festive spirit aboard our tender boats was palpable as we reached shore. The ship's pianist had set the tone earlier, playing various recognized Christmas favorites. Some passengers joined in, singing along to the carols. In contrast, others contentedly lip-synced, all contributing to the holiday atmosphere that seemed to bridge the gap between our anchored ship and the awaiting shores of Belem.

A Journey of Discovery

This voyage to Belem was a reminder that life is a grand adventure filled with moments of beauty, discovery, and connection. The vibrant sunsets, the bustling promenades, the culinary delights, and the captivating stories – all these elements combined to create an experience that would forever hold a special place in our hearts. As we sailed into the Caribbean, we carried the memories of this unforgettable journey, ready to embrace the wonders that awaited us.

Embarking on an Amazon Adventure: The Journey to Ribeirinhos Villages

Today, Diane and I embark on an extraordinary expedition into the heart of the Amazon rainforest where the journey begins on Deck A of our cruise ship. Our destination is the remote villages of the Ribeirinhos, accessible only by outboard motorboat at Docas do Para. This unique adventure promises a high-speed cruise along the river, offering unparalleled opportunities to observe the rich equatorial flora and fauna up close. As we prepare to board the expedition tenders, the air is thick with anticipation, marking the start of our magical journey into one of the world's most diverse ecosystems.

The expedition tenders serve as our magic carpet ride into the heart of the rainforest. As we settle into these smaller vessels, the reality of our adventure begins to sink in. The gentle hum of the outboard motors mingles with the sounds of the surrounding wilderness, creating a symphony of excitement and natural wonder. Each tender becomes a floating platform of discovery, offering intimate views of the river's edge and the teeming life that calls it home.

As we push off from the cruise ship, the expansive Amazon unfolds before us like a living tapestry, its coffee-colored waters mirroring the infinite shades of green from the towering rainforest canopy. The humid air carries the symphony of the jungle—bird calls echoing across the water, the gentle rustling of leaves, and the occasional splash from beneath the surface.

This river journey to the Ribeirinhos villages transcends mere transportation; it's an immersive introduction to the rhythm of Amazonian life. Each winding turn reveals new wonders: brilliant scarlet macaws launching into flight from emergent trees, troops of curious capuchin monkeys swinging through vines to investigate our passage, and the magical moment when a boto—the legendary pink river dolphin—arcs gracefully through the water beside our boat.

The journey itself becomes a window into the delicate balance between humans and nature in this extraordinary ecosystem. As we approach the stilted wooden homes of the Ribeirinhos, we're not just visitors but participants in an ancient relationship between people and the mighty river that sustains all life in the Amazon.

Our Postcards from St. John Caribbean Night Skies: A Celestial Symphony

As we sit on our balcony, navigating to the next destination, St. John's, the Caribbean night unfolds before us like a celestial canvas. The stars, scattered across the inky darkness, whisper ancient tales directly to our hearts. Each constellation reminds us of our incredible fortune - to be here, in this moment, with our health and lifelong friendship.

This journey isn't just about the destination but the shared experience under these vast, shimmering skies. As we gaze upward, we're filled with profound gratitude for the opportunity to witness such beauty together, creating memories that will shine as brightly as the stars above.

As Diane and I savored the flavors of our dinner at Manfredi's Italian restaurant on the ship, we couldn't help but reminisce about the incredible journey thus far. Barbados and St. Lucia are now etched in our memories, and we found ourselves excitedly planning our next excursion. But more than the stunning landscapes and crystal-clear waters, it was the extraordinary personalities we encountered that genuinely made our Semicentennial Odyssey unforgettable.

These newfound friends added their unique warmth and camaraderie, becoming an essential ingredient in the rich tapestry of our travels. As we clinked glasses and shared stories, we marveled at how these encounters transformed our trip from a simple vacation into a profound personal adventure.

The Caribbean night sky is a spectacle that humbles as well as inspires. It's a reminder of our place in the universe, tiny yet significant. The Milky Way stretches across the horizon, a river of light connecting us to distant worlds. Shooting stars streak across the sky, carrying our wishes and dreams on their fiery tails.

We reflect on life's journey in these quiet moments, surrounded by the gentle lapping of waves against the ship and the soft sea breeze. The stars above mirror the twinkling lights of distant ships, creating a seamless blend of earth and sky. In these moments, we truly appreciate the magic of travel and the bonds of friendship that have brought us here.
